

“Fitting and taking care of each patient’s individual needs, and helping restore their confidence and self-esteem. Seeing customers live good, happy lives following surgery, and not worry about how they look, is one of the most rewarding parts of our job. Another is finding new products and garments to help our customer’s live better and normal lives.”

- Cherly Pritchard – Owner of A Special Place, Inc.

A Special Place is just what the name implies. We have been meeting the needs of cancer patients by providing them with compassionate and individual service since 1984. We offer a wide selection of Breast Prosthesis, Mastectomy Bras, Wigs, Turbans, Compression Stockings, Compression Garments and Swimsuits, along with other products to fill your needs. These are all offered to our clients in a comfortable, private atmosphere. Our professional, certified staff can supply all of these essentials at one location at 1189 Congress Street, Portland, ME. We also have a location at 745 Central Avenue in Dover, New Hampshire, with easy access to I-95 and the Spaulding Turnpike.
